

Daily Business Report

May 7, 2009

Eric Northbrook, an executive with Cushman & Wakefield and founder of the HeadNorth Foundation, received the 2009 Presidents' Community Service Award from the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors at its spring world conference in San Diego. The award honors an individual who has demonstrated outstanding stewardship in his or her community through work with a nonprofit organization. Northbrook received $5,000 for the HeadNorth Foundation, which provides support to individuals and families affected by spinal cord injuries. Northbrook founded the foundation in 2006 after becoming paralyzed from a motorcycle accident. Since its establishment, HeadNorth has raised more than $.3 million.